Through this FREE Virtual Summer Professional Development workshop administered by the FDR Memorial Legacy Committee and the University of the District of Columbia, teachers working in public, charter, and private schools will receive:

- 10 hours of professional development units (CEUs/PLUs).
- A $200 stipend.
- Classroom-ready content about disability rights, new perspectives on FDR, the intersection of civil rights and disability rights, and more.

100% of last year's attendees said they would recommend this PD to their colleagues.
