Suggestions for Differentiating Instruction for Diverse Students:

You can make the contents of this lesson accessible for all students by selecting the appropriate (and free) Microsoft 365 Accessibility app.

Directions: Refer to the UDL Toolkit to determine the appropriate Microsoft app/apps for students in each of the categories below.

Students with Sensory Disabilities	Students with Motor Disabilities	Students with Mental and/or Cognitive Disabilities

Assessment: Indicate how you will determine whether students met the objectives.

Reflections: When your lesson plan has been executed, you should provide your thoughts on Its Implementation. For example, you could consider feedback regarding: (a) What went well? (b) What were the challenges? (c) What could/should I have done differently? (d) Did my method of assessment measure what I wanted?
